

THE MARSHALL REPUBLICAN.

VOL. VIII.

MARSHALL, SALINE COUNTY, MISSOURI, JULY 28, 1899.

NO. 26

H. H. DOWNING.
Representing A. B. Kirschbaum & Co., Philadelphia, the largest clothing firm in the world.

RESIDENCE OF H. H. DOWNING.
On East Arrow Street. One of Marshall's handsomest homes.

CRIMINAL COURT.

State of Missouri vs. William R. Freed, rape; enters plea of not guilty; case set for trial Monday, Sept. 11 and def't remanded to jail.

Lafayette Scott, assault with intent to kill; verdict of guilty and penalty of three years in the penitentiary affixed.

Garfield Robinson, burglary and larceny, verdict of guilty of larceny and penalty fixed at three years in the penitentiary.

Thos. W. Jackson, felonious assault; enters plea of guilty to common assault; court assesses fine at $50, and costs; remanded to custody of Sheriff.

Owen Pile, assault with intent to kill; enters plea of not guilty; continued at application and cost of def't, until Thursday, Nov. 23. Personal recognizance in sum of $500.

William Grant, assault with intent to kill; def't enters plea of guilty to common assault and is given 60 days in the County jail.

F. E. Skinner, keeping dramshop open on Sunday; enters plea of not guilty, cause set for Friday, July 8th. Personal recognizance of $200, for appearance. (Same entry in other five cases.)

Ordered by court that new grand jury be summoned. Following jury impanelled: Chas.

Irvine, Geo. W. Latimer, Joseph Hamill, Eugene Dawes, A. J. Graves, Ed Haynie, Richard Gaines, J. D. Bailey, John Reynolds, Jno. W. Robertson, Hubert Wood and William Durrett.

James Wingfield, embezzlement; cause can't till Nov. 22, 1899 at def't's cost. (Same entry in second case.)

Geo. Gerkin, carrying concealed weapons, verdict of not guilty rendered; def't discharged.

Pat Ingram, perjury; enters plea of not guilty. Cause set for Friday, 28th.

William Young, felonious assault; enters plea of not guilty. Cause set for Saturday.

William Samuels, burglary and larceny; enters plea of not guilty and is remanded.

Alonzo Clay assault with intent to kill, tried by jury and found guilty. Punishment assessed at 10 years in the penitentiary.

State of Missouri vs. Jno. J. Hawkins, burglary and larceny; court assesses punishment at 2 years in the penitentiary and parole granted; recognized in sum of $100 for appearance at each term. (Same entry in second case.)

F. W. Blackford, regular shipper of Blackburn, was on the Kansas City market Friday with a load of cattle.

LIVE STOCK WORLD.

J. F. Rolt was in St. Louis Tuesday with cattle from Blackburn, including 25 head of well finished 1,283 pound steers sold to Swift & Company at $5.60.

Daniel O'Brien of this city, who is so well and favorably known all over Saline, has been offered a position with the live stock and commission firm of Alexander and Conover of Chicago, as a traveling representative, which he has accepted.

S. & H. Harris, Blackburn, were on the St. Louis market Tuesday with 1,201 pound steers sold at $5.10 to an Eastern order buyer.

E. G. Pauling, Blackburn, had in 15 head 1,166 pound steers sold at $5.35 to Swift & Company in St. Louis Tuesday.

Col. J. T. Thorp, a veteran stockman of Napton, Saline county, Mo., was here with a select consignment of cattle from Nelson, Mo., that were reared and fed by John Berkley, one of Pettis county's largest and best cattlemen. His offerings included 20 highly finished 1,435 pound steers that with two other loads topped the market at $5.65. Swift & Co. was the purchaser. — Wednesday's St. Louis National Reporter.

H. C. Terrell of Marshall had hogs on K. C. market Wednesday.